What about you? Did you know that there is really only one big ocean – called the world ocean – that is made up of five smaller oceans? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Label those five oceans on a world map *Label the Mariana Trench which is believed to be the deepest part of the ocean. *Complete research to find at least five unusual animals and five unusual plants that live only in the ocean. *Find 5 interesting facts about the ocean that you did not already know.
 SELF-PORTRAIT Each person in Marty's class tells something about himself or herself. What would you like others to know about You. Use a mobile, a collage, or a large web that tells what you look like (physical characteristics), what you like (interests and hobbies), things that make you unique, ways you are ordinary, even plans for the future.	 PARTS OF A DOG Find or draw a picture of a dog and then label all the parts of a dog's body. You may need to use an encyclopedia. Be sure to include the following: muzzle shoulder chest pastern crest pad thigh elbow hock joint loin or flank croup or rump withers brisket stifle
TRUTH versus GOSSIP Think about the following. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Truth is more important, but gossip's more interesting. *Truth is what you can see with your own eyes and hear with your own ears; gossip you get secondhand and may or may not be true. 	KNOWLEDGE Marty wonders if he will ever use math in his "whole life." Make a list of ways you will use English, Math, Geography, Science, and Art in your life. Include ideas you get from family members, friends and others.
